

2018 MIT Alumni Leadership Awards – FSILG Recipients

Bronze Beaver Award

The Bronze Beaver Award is the highest honor the Association can bestow upon any alumni volunteer. It is given to recognize distinguished service to the Alumni Association and the Institute by alumni who have been active in most or all phases of alumni activity and who have been outstanding in at least one phase. Alf K. Berle '27 and Carole (Cac) A. Clarke '21 were the first recipients of this award, which was established in 1955.

- Bruce N. Anderson '69, MArch '73 (Delta Upsilon/Theta Tau)

Harold E. Lobdell '17 Distinguished Service Award

The Harold E. Lobdell '17 Distinguished Service Award recognizes service to the Alumni Association and MIT that is of significant depth over a sustained period. Lobdell's interest and commitment to MIT spanned all areas of alumni relations.

- Jeffrey A. Arenberg '86, SM '87 (Zeta Beta Tau)
- Rolf Brauchler '69 (Sigma Chi)
- Brian F. Brown '93 (Delta Kappa Epsilon)
- Douglas C. Spreng '65 (Phi Delta Theta)

Henry B. Kane '24 Award

The Henry B. Kane '24 Award recognizes exceptional fundraising service and accomplishments for the Alumni Association and MIT.

- Yolanda Lau '02 (Alpha Chi Omega)

Margaret L. A. MacVicar '65, ScD '67 Award

The Margaret L. A. MacVicar '65, ScD '67 Award recognizes innovation, dedication and meaningful impact for the Alumni Association or the Institute in any area of volunteer activity, demonstrating strong potential for future volunteer leadership for the Association. Recipients have ten or fewer cumulative years of volunteer service to the Alumni Association and/or MIT.

- Sandra Chen '12 (Alpha Chi Omega)
- Stephen P. DeFalco '83, SM '88 (Delta Tau Delta)

George B. Morgan '20 Award

The George B. Morgan '20 Award recognizes ongoing excellence in all aspects of Educational Council activity. This includes dedication to MIT, an abiding concern for the interests of prospective students, and exceptional standards of achievement and professionalism in meeting Council responsibilities.

- David J. Luneau '87 (Delta Kappa Epsilon)
- Adam T. Singer '92 (Sigma Nu)